

2024 Advertising Application for fence advertising space near entry gates

The Connecticut Garlic & Harvest Festival will be offering display space for rent on the fence near the ticket booths at this year's event on October 12-13. Space will be rented in 6' increments, on which a banner or sign may be hung advertising your booth, product, or service. Fence space will be to the left or right of the ticket booths, in a very visible location to attendees entering the event. Three gates will be used for entry. Our event typically sees approximately 15,000 attendees per day.
